Dear Parents,

We have many reasons to celebrate over this past week. Our Cross Country team was very successful last week, winning the small schools section of the competition. Congratulations to everyone involved for the great sportsmanship and competitiveness that was displayed. Good luck to Riley Coughlan, Alex Fish, Jackson Frantz and Charlotte Loft who will compete at the divisional level next week. A reminder that whenever children are in their school uniform, they are representing OLMC. This includes out of school hours and non-school events.

Congratulations are also in order for a past student of OLMC. Emily Owens has won a major short film competition. Emily's film, 'Imagine', was entered in the Reel to Reel Youth Week Short Film competition. The film explores the plights of refugees. Fantastic effort, Emily.

Last week our Year 3 and 5 students participated in the NAPLAN assessments. I would like to commend the students on their attitude towards completing NAPLAN to the best of their ability. We keep the NAPLAN period very low key here at OLMC. I believe it is important for children to be exposed to different things throughout their lives, even if they find them a bit tough. Shielding our children from challenges does not build their resilience or self confidence.

This weekend the following children will receive the Sacrament of Eucharist for the first time: Lila Clark, Cooper Shalders, Jack Sheedy, Lisa D'Monte, Blake Fisher, Erin Kelly, Matilda McKay, Max McKenna, Ciaran McMullan, Jarrad Millman, Macey Newman, Quinn O'Brien, Keira Wilson, Oliver D'Crus and Lindsay Irvine. We wish them all the best and keep them in our prayers.

I have spoken to the children about manners and respect this week and asked them to be mindful of the way they treat others. Manners cost nothing but are worth a fortune. Please encourage your children to always say 'please' and 'thank you' and to use people's names when they are speaking to them.

As the weather has turned quite cool, please ensure your child has their school jumper with them each day. Bottle green beanies and scarves are also encouraged.

A reminder that no parent should be approaching other people's children at school. If you have an issue please see me or the child's parent, off the school grounds.

This Sunday we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Trinity. This is very timely as they hope to pour the slab for the new school next week.

Gospel: Matthew 28:16-20

Baptise them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Best wishes

Julie
